July 27th-28th

June was hot, but the low humidity and light breeze made for rather pleasant racing weather. The shade in Martin Park was put to good use. The High Speed Touring and Legends numbers were down somewhat, but a larger than usual Open Wheel group helped take up the slack. It was good to have John Blocha, Harold Quantie, Ken Lawrence, David Niedell, Volker Steffen, and Brad Bowen return to the COMMA wars after long absences. Welcome back, Ken, after almost two years.

Closed wheel saw new faces in Chester Bailey with his Porsche and its big bad brakes. Steve Coleman picked up his first COMMA trophy in GT3. Barry Thomas made the trip from Australia (by way of Dallas) with the RX7. Ryan Snider nailed another win in Pro Stock A, Gordon Beavers took the win in GT3, and Joe Park, Mike Lindsay, Clyde the Slide Coman, Sean Sullivan, and Bill Morris had their usual war in GT1. Marty Wagner won Pro Stock Super, and JJ Perodeau came in second. Randy Wagner was third in PS in spite of yours truly. Again, I am sorry, Randy, and a big thank you to Randy, Sean, and whomever else missed me as I spun merrily down the middle of turn 4.

The Legends had some good races in spite of the smaller turnout. You guys who were not there missed a great weekend. On Sunday Troy Swift won SemiPro, Mike Samis Pro and Bobby Christensen Masters.

Sheryl Stephens hosted a get-together for the coworkers and families from Hillcrest Hospital in the newly remodeled Cimarron Club and had an excellent turnout. We may have generated a few more COMMA fans.

We are looking forward to the July CLOCKWISE event and hope to see you all there with friends and family. A big thank you to all the workers who show up, rain or shine, hot or cold, and do a super job of keeping us all in line, conducting a safe event in a user-friendly atmosphere. Thanks to Max and Nancy Herrera for helping out with the pace car duty and to Neil Kennedy, the Voice of COMMA, to whom we never seem to give the recognition he deserves for his knowledgeable golden voice work on the PA and Winners' Circle podium.
