COMMA COMMENTS

The May event started off with threats of wet weather, and it was a little damp early Saturday. By noon things had dried out and we had perfect weather for the rest of the weekend. The entry was down a bit from April, possibly because of other events that take place on Memorial Day weekend – The Indy 500, Formula One in MONACO, and the Charlotte 600 to name a few. Most likely we will swap dates with the Central Motorcycle Road Racing Association in 2002 as they want a three-day weekend. Then we can all watch the big boys do their thing live instead of on tape.

A great BIG thank you is in order for Jason Caswell and his OUTBACK STEAKHOUSE crew. They served up some great tucker for almost 150 of us Saturday evening. Everyone who attended raved about the salad, potatoes, steak and chicken that was served up in such an efficient manner and consumed in Martin Park under beautiful blue skies along with Brad's great music, rounding out a perfect evening.

One of our guests among several who dropped in over the weekend was Stephen Cox, host of the Auto Week show on SPEED Channel. We had fun visiting with Steve and his family and trust he had a good time racing in the open wheel group in a Toyota WSR. This was Steve's second visit to Hallett, and we plan to see him again soon.

The High Speed Touring Association continues to grow with several new members wringing out their high performance rides and taking full advantage of their "prepaid speeding ticket."

The Legends had their usual spirited battles both Saturday and Sunday with Mike Samis winning the Pro Division Sunday while Craig Lewis took Semi Pro and Leonard Conn came out on top in Masters. Galen, Homer, Chris (as well as Shirley and Mary) do an excellent job of keeping the fun meter high on the scale for the Legend participants.

Open Wheel was a little light in numbers, but heavy in good battles in all three classes, which kept things interesting right up to the checker. Mark Patton won FA while Trent Lewis held off a hard charging Bob Hancock who started on the tail end of the grid. Brandon Koehn won Spec Racer Ford with Richard Stephens taking second in just his third race, and Keith Spiker took third. Ken Snipes, Joe Henderson, and David Letsch took the top spots in Formula Ford.

The Closed Wheel group had a good field. Mike Lindsay held off David Herr for the over all win in a nose-to-tail, flag-to-flag pitched battle. Norm Siede took GT3 honors. Ryan Snider got his first trophy ever in Pro Stock A, and Randy Wagner beat big brother Marty in Pro Stock Super. Pete Bell towed in from Kansas with his wicked looking Avenger, and Pete's son Clint did a great job driving his first race in Pete's bit white Corvette.

Next time you stop by the OUTBACK, say thanks again from the Hallett gang! See you in June, amigos.
