Sept: clockwise

As we all know, August is hot in Oklahoma and the COMMA Challenge Friday test day was a scorcher, but Saturday cooled off some until about noon, and then Sunday was about as good as it gets in Oklahoma during August. Everyone seemed to be in an even better mood than usual, and we had a great turnout, especially in the Saturday High Speed Touring sessions. We had to split the group and ran a bit longer - for a good reason.

The Southwest Formula Mazda series was again our guest series and put on their usual very professional program. Local hero David Stover won both days, but five other drivers shared the podium between the Saturday and Sunday races, showing the close competition that is typical of that series. Tim and Sandy always do a great job, but took time off to accompany Mike and Connie on a research and information gathering mission Saturday night. No doubt, several of you noticed Mike's T-shirt Sunday.

COMMA racers are a hardy bunch, and the challenges faced by the Meekers and the Klappericks (mostly off-track) illustrate how tough and resourceful our membership is. From time to time we like to mention "if it was easy, everyone would do it." As you can see from the race results and the points standings, there are several year-end battles that should prove to make an interesting last couple of events. We are running Clockwise in September and Counterclockwise in October.

The September Saturday schedule has two groups of High Speed Touring. We had a good group of Corvettes come down from the St. Louis area this month, and they all had a great time. We hope to see them again soon. Several different car groups from here and everywhere have been planning outings to Hallett for the HST events. This month we are expecting some more Mustangs. The BMW Club is joining us in October.

All you Open Wheel Winged drivers---Start planning now for the Open Wheel Championship, our guest series for October. See the info on the copy of the poster in this newsletter. There is a purse of over $5000 and growing, and we will pay at least 10 deep. Smaller, lighter, more nimble cars have a great chance to finish well in this type of event, so don't let the words Indy Car and Formula One keep you away. In the past two Open Wheel events, we have had a Formula Mazda finish second in one and third in the other. If you want to sign up early, here is the entry form!!
